“It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been partakers of their (the Jewish peoples) spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in material things.”

Romans 15:27

History shows The World's Hatred for the Jews

Over the last 500 years, the Gaza Strip has been a place where no one has ever truly cared about. For the last 100 years, Gaza have increasingly been used as pawns, by both the Arabs and the international community, in their efforts to vilify Israel and the Jews. When push came to shove, the international community, led by the UN, preferred dead Gazans over losing leverage against Israel. Israel did more for the Gazans than any of its many rulers, and if the international community didn't hate Israel so much, the situation in Gaza today would be very different.

In the aftermath of the First World War and the fall of the Ottoman Empire, the Gaza Strip was included in the area that came under the control of Great Britain. The 1947 U.N. Partition Plan (which suggested an Arab state and a tiny Jewish state on that same land), included the Gaza Strip in the territory of the “Arab State.” However, the Arab countries rejected the Partition Plan, and chose to go to war on the Jewish state. While Israel survive the onslaught of five Arab armies, the Gaza Strip remained under Egyptian control from 1948 to 1967. With the U.N. allowing the Egyptians to deny the Gazans any opportunity to settle, deny them citizenship and deny them any rights. The areas that is now often called “Occupied Palestinian Territories” was not even considered to be “Palestinian territories” until they were liberated by Israel in 1967.

According to U.N. records, during Israel's War of Independence, Israel offered to include the Gaza Strip within the borders of the Israel and give all its residents full Israeli citizenship. Had the offer been accepted, the Gaza Strip would be an integral part of Israel, all its residents would hold full citizenship. However, both the Arab states and the international community did not care about the fate of Gaza's residents. The Arab countries rejected the offer, preferring to continue their fight against Israel's very right to exist. (Psalm 83:2&4)

Once Israel liberated Gaza from the Egyptian occupation, things started looking better for Gazans. Israel allowed them to enter Israel to work, and started linking Gaza to Israeli infrastructure, such as electricity and water. Despite the positive change, the Arab countries and the international community refused to accept the Israeli presence in the Strip, inventing the false claim that Israel was an “occupier.” Over time, the rhetoric against Israel as an “occupier” intensified until Israel agreed to enter into the Oslo Accords with the Palestine Liberation Organization and pave the way for the creation of the Palestinian Authority.

While the PLO/P.A. promised peace and democracy, all it delivered was brainwashing to hate Israel, and incitement of violence, murder and terror. With elections taking place only twice, once in 1996 and then again in 2006. The first elections ushered in the dictatorial leadership of Yasser Arafat and his Fatah party, and the second ushered in the dictatorial rule of Hamas, an internationally designated terror organization. This lead up to Israel's totally pulling out of the Gaza Strip in Sep. 2005, and turning over control of Gaza to PLO/P.A., until the terrorists attack of Oct. 7, 2023.

Gazans' lives don't matter to the Arab countries or international community unless they can be weaponized against the Jews and the Jewish state.

The Terrorists Organizations, Hamas and Fatah have still not removed their call for the genocide of the Jewish People. Their ideological commitment is to destroy the State of Israel through a long-term 'so-called' holy war (Jihad).

Israeli Updates

Terror Summer Camps in Gaza, Hamas Indoctrinates; Hamas uses summer camps for Palestinian children as a method of “promoting the resistance and Jihadi culture” among Gazan youths, President Isaac Herzog revealed in an interview. The president unveiled a secret document written by Hamas’s Al-Qassam Brigades last July, detailing the terrorist group’s self-proclaimed goals for the summer camps it operated across the Gaza Strip. One of the goals mentioned in the Hamas document, gathered by Israeli forces operating in Gaza, is to “promote the culture of resistance and the values of Jihad among the children.” Also included as goals are the “spiritual, mental and physical preparation of children to serve the resistance in the future” and “to contribute to the militarization of society through training.” Some of the activities for the children in the summer camps included shooting practice, which included simulations of terror attacks as well as rigorous courses, to prepare the Gazan kids to fight for terrorist groups against Israel. According to Herzog, the summer camps were held by Hamas inside military sites belonging to the terrorist organization. “The document clearly shows the spread of the values of ‘jihad’ and ‘resistance’ just means terrorism,” he said. “It shows how to turn a summer camp into a military exercise...this is taking place all over the Gaza Strip.”

IDF: Iran Taught Hamas Terrorists to Build Precision Rockets; Over the past few weeks, the Nahal Brigade combat team in the 162nd Division has been operating in the Daraj Tuffah area in the northern Gaza Strip. In cooperation with the Intelligence Directorate and Special Forces, the troops located a Hamas strategic tunnel shaft, leading to a 100-meter-long tunnel in which a weapons production site was located. As part of these intelligence efforts regarding this weapons production site, the forces located findings that prove that Hamas terrorists learned - under Iranian guidance - how to operate and build precise components and strategic weapons, and gained technological knowledge in the field. During the targeted raids, several terrorists were killed in close-quarters combat with the troops and in supporting air strikes. Further, a new report claims that terror groups backed by Iran have been working together more than ever since the October 7 massacre. A renowned American media outlet has reported on the IRGC’s cooperation with various terrorist organizations in the Middle East that operate on orders from Tehran. “The attacks can seem random, but they are the fruit of a carefully calibrated strategy forged in the wake of the 2020 killing of Qasem Soleimani, leader of Iran’s elite Quds Force, to bring cohesion to the loosely formed alliance of militias — designated by Tehran as the ‘axis of resistance.’ Although the groups seem unrelated — a rebel organization in Yemen; a guerrilla movement in Lebanon; and militias formed to fight U.S. troops in Iraq — they all have one thing in common: their loyalty to Iran, which arms, finances and inspires them,” the report writes.
