Happy New Year!

"Israel, Palestine and the Middle East"

You must hear these end-time prophecies and current events, concerning the Palestinian issue and the Land of Israel.

"Israel, the Church and End-Time Prophecy"

Gain insight into God's plan for Israel and the Church, while learning about your Jewish roots and heritage. This is a significant prophetic teaching on God's plan for Israel, how it is being fulfilled today, and the implications for believers.

"Messiah and the Passover Seder" (Presentation)

This teaching demonstrates a beautiful picture of how the pieces of God's salvation plan fit together, and how the elements used in the Passover Seder point toward the Messiah. The presentation culminates in an explanation of how the Lord's Supper was a Passover celebration.

"Gentiles Commission to the Jews"

Yachad Ministries has a crucial end-time Message to share with both Jews and Gentiles... and the enemy wants to destroy it!

"It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been partakers of their (the Jewish peoples) spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in material things."

Romans 15:27

The New Year has arrived and with it comes new hopes and new dreams for a fresh start. New Year's resolutions are heard everywhere. People making promises to themselves, to others and to God.

That's good! We should resolve to live as better people. If we are the same this year as we were last year if we have not grown spiritually, something is wrong! When a child does not grow and mature physically, we know there is a problem. Likewise, if a believer does not mature spiritually, we can be certain that Satan has slipped a "stunted-growth" wedge into an unprotected area. If you are making new resolutions this year, determine to carry them out. Be a man of your word, not just a man (woman) of words. Yeshua said: "But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the Day of Judgment." Matthew 12: 36

That's why I propose that as of today, you do not keep anything for "special occasions" as everyday you live is a special occasion.

- Life isn't only about survival; it's about joy in the Lord.
- Do not delay anything that adds laughter and joy to your life.
- Let's tell our families and friends how much we love them.

If you will work on the following resolutions you need not concern yourself with other resolutions, as everything else will fall beautifully into place.

1. Seek to know God by diligently searching Him out in prayer and Bible study.
2. Decide that He must increase, and you must decrease.
3. Have a totally surrendered heart to God, so that He is not only Savior of your life, but Lord also.

We want to thank each of you who pray for, and supported Yachad Ministries financially throughout 2017. Without you, and the grace of God, Yachad Ministries could not carry on. As we enter this new year, if you have not yet (personally) helped us in this vital work, we ask you to let us know you stand with the vision and the work of Yachad Ministries by sending a love offering today to help further the work of the Lord in 2018.

The Ministry of Yachad wishes you a Happy and Healthy 2018. Your Prayer's and Financial support is more urgent then ever!

We pray God will bless you and your family. Shalom Rabbi Robert Solomon

The Terrorists Organizations, Hamas and Fatah have still not removed their call for the genocide of the Jewish People. Their ideological commitment is to destroy the State of Israel through a long-term 'so-called' holy war (Jihad).

Israeli Updates

SECOND TEMPLE COIN AT THE UN SECURITY COUNCIL: Israel's Ambassador to the United Nations Danny Danon addressed a special session of the Security Council convened to discuss USA President Donald Trump's announcement on Jerusalem. Israel Ambassador to the UN Danny Danon thanked President Trump, Vice President Mike Pence and USA Ambassador to the UN Nikki Haley by saying that "we are grateful to the United States for its courageous decision." Addressing to the Council members, Danon held up a replica of a first-century coin. "I have here a replica of an ancient coin found on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. It is dated from the year 67 A.D. during the time of the second Jewish Temple. The words 'Jerusalem the Holy' are written on it," Danon said. "Only three years later, in the year 70 A.D., would our holy temple be destroyed and the Jewish people sent into exile for 2,000 years." Ambassador Danon concluded his remarks by reminding the Council of the Jewish prayer "next year in Jerusalem. Seventy years ago, the Jewish people came home to Jerusalem," he said, calling on "all the nations of the world to join us this year in Jerusalem, the capital of the State of Israel."

DONALD TRUMP'S JERUSALEM DECISION GARNERS AWARD FROM FAITH LEADERS: More than 20 faith leaders met with President Trump and presented him with an award celebrating his support of religious communities and his historic move to recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel. The USA recognition of Israel's capital and plans to move the USA Embassy to the divided city set off protests among Palestinians but was hailed by supporters of Israel, including American evangelicals. "Evangelicals are grateful for the fact that he has actually done what he campaigned on," said Tony Perkins, president of the Family Research Council.

NETANYAHU SLAMS EU 'HYPOCRISY' ON JERUSALEM AHEAD OF TENSE PARIS, BRUSSELS VISIT: Israeli PM Benjamin Netanyahu slammed Europe's "hypocrisy" with regards to USA President Trump's decision to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital as he departed for a two-day visit to Paris and Brussels, where he is sure to face staunch criticism over the controversial move. Netanyahu said he was not prepared to accept "double standards" in which European nations jump to criticize Trump's Jerusalem decision but do not condemn rocket fire into Israel from the Gaza Strip or Palestinian incitement in response to the move. "While I respect Europe, I am not prepared to accept a double standard from it. I hear voices from there condemning President Trump's historic statement but I have not heard condemnations of the rockets fired at Israel or the terrible incitement against it," Netanyahu said as he boarded a plane to Paris. Netanyahu, who will travel to Brussels to meet with European foreign ministers, vowed to use the forum to "present Israel's truth without fear and with head held high." In Israel, three "days of rage" and Hamas calls for a new intifada have sparked sporadic violence, including the firing of rockets into Israel from the Gaza Strip. One such rocket fired at the southern Israeli city of Sderot was found in the courtyard of a vacant kindergarten the following day.
