“Israel, Palestine and the Middle East”

You must hear these end-time prophecies and current events, concerning the Palestinian issue and the Land of Israel.

“Israel, the Church and End-Time Prophecy”

Gain insight into God's plan for Israel and the Church, while learning about your Jewish roots and heritage. This is a significant prophetic teaching on God's plan for Israel, how it is being fulfilled today, and the implications for believers.

“Messiah and the Passover Seder” (Presentation)

This teaching demonstrates a beautiful picture of how the pieces of God's salvation plan fit together, and how the elements used in the Passover Seder point toward the Messiah. The presentation culminates in an explanation of how the Lord's Supper was a Passover celebration.

“Gentiles Commission to the Jews”

Yachad Ministries has a crucial end-time Message to share with both Jews and Gentiles... and the enemy wants to destroy it!

“It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been partakers of their (the Jewish peoples) spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in material things.”

Romans 15:27

Israel Here to Stay! Whether they Recognize Her or Not!

Ismail Haniyeh, gave a speech that was held in the Al-Azhar Mosque. Throughout his speech, Haniyeh never missed an opportunity to lash out at Israel. He, also threatened the safety of Israel's citizens. The people, inspired by Haniyeh words, passionately repeated after him, “we will not recognize Israel!”

Here is some of what he said in the speech: They said to us: Recognize Israel, stop the resistance and respect the rules of the game based on oppression! And we said and declared it, we said it from Gaza and on the land of Palestine, and we now declare it from the pulpit of Al-Azhar mosque, and among this crowd gathered, that we will never, ever, ever recognize Israel! Seven times he said, "We will never recognize Israel!"

The enemy does not want to recognize Israel, because recognizing her would be admitting she has certain, inalienable rights. Recognizing her means, she is an equal partner in the peace process and should be treated that way. Most of all, recognizing Israel would mean she has the right to exist. The enemy wants to blot her out, as if, she never existed at all. If her enemies recognize Israel, they won't be able to destroy her. This is the "sticking" point!

The land of Israel belongs to the Jewish People. Many people are dead-set against this fact. However, this doesn't change God's Mind one bit. Great nations, such as the Roman Empire, the Greek Empire, the Assyrian Empire, the Babylonian Empire, the Persian Empire, the Byzantine Empire, the Crusaders, the Spanish Empire, Ancient Egypt, Nazi Germany and the Soviet Union have all tried to stop Israel. They lost all their power, and influence, and no longer exist. Yet, the Jewish People still exists. Man had done everything to try and stop Israel. They are still trying to do so. One thing is for sure, they will not succeed in their endeavor. Israel will still be here, long after, her enemies are gone! (Amos 9:14-15)

Let us not forget that Israel is a Sovereign Nation. What constitutes that Israel is a Sovereign Nation? The most important thing is God established her as a nation 4,000 years, ago (Genesis 13:14-17). You can't get any more sovereign than that! However, modern day Israel meets all the criteria of a Sovereign Nation, as well. She is a ruling power with proper authority of a self government. She has set this government up for her people. In her case, she set forth a Democracy. Her land, or territory, exists as an independent state. She has the ability to rule and protect her people.

The Terrorists Organizations, Hamas and Fatah have still not removed their call for the genocide of the Jewish People. Their ideological commitment is to destroy the State of Israel through a long-term 'so-called' holy war (Jihad).

Israeli Updates

UK Labour Party Loses Jewish Vote: Jewish voters are turning away in droves from the UK Labour party, once seen as their traditional political home, owing to a combination of “extreme” left policies and poor leadership on anti-Semitism. “Jews have deserted the Labour party for two main reasons,” said Jonathan Boyd, executive director of the Institute for Jewish Policy Research (JPR). “First, the party has lurched to the left; and second, the party has failed to understand or recognize how anti-Semitism manifests itself in leftist politics and as a result allowed it to fester and grow. To regain the support of Jewish voters, it would have to shift on both fronts: move back towards the political center and root out the left-wing manifestations of anti-Semitism that exist – not only in the party itself but in wider society.” A poll of British Jews earlier this year found that 86% of respondents believed there were high levels of anti-Semitism among Labour party members and elected representatives. Ivan Lewis, a British politician, said the “levels of anxiety and fear among UK Jews are really shocking. The sense that, for the first time in recent history, this country could become a cold home for Jews is probably held by 75% of local Jewish voters”.

France Adopts Motion to Label Anti-Zionism as Anti-Semitism; The motion proposed by lawmaker Sylvain Maillard of LREM, passed last week by a majority vote of 154-72 in the parliament’s lower house. “For some years now, France, the whole of Europe, but also almost all Western democracies are facing a rise in anti-Semitism,” the resolution states. “Anti-Zionist acts can at times hide anti-Semitic realities. Hate toward Israel due to its perception as a Jewish collective is akin to hatred toward the entire Jewish community.” In France today, “dirty Zionist... means dirty Jew,” said Maillard. Meyer Habib, a lawmaker from the Union of Democrats Party representing French ex-pats in several countries, including Israel, said in support of the resolution in the National Assembly, “Anti-Zionists are not just critics of Israel, they are obsessed. They use anti-racist and anti-colonialist rhetoric to try to erase Jewish identity.

Dozens Of Un Ambassadors Visit Jerusalem; Dozens of UN ambassadors from around the globe visited the City of David (Ancient Jerusalem). They came as the guests of Israel’s Ambassador to the United Nations, Danny Danon. The envoys toured the three-thousand-year-old archaeological excavations of ancient Jerusalem and recently uncovered Pilgrimage Road together with Moshe Leon, Mayor of Jerusalem. The visit comes as a new wind of change is felt at the UN with many nations beginning to change their traditional voting patterns in favor of support for Israel. Ambassador Danny Danon explained the significance of the visit to the City of David: “I brought United Nations Ambassadors here to the City of David; to see where it all began. Three-thousand years ago, this is where King David established his capital city. The land of Israel is our ancestral homeland and Jerusalem is our eternal capital. We will continue to bring UN Ambassadors and diplomats here to the City of David because there is nowhere better on earth to demonstrate the Jewish people’s ancient roots in this land”. The City of David is Israel's largest active archeological site, situated upon the ancient city of Jerusalem. It is the place recorded in the Bible upon which King David established Jerusalem as the united capital of Israel 3,000 years ago. The City of David is an Israeli National Heritage Site with over half-a-million visitors annually.
