SEPTEMBER 2018

ELUL 5778-TISHREI 5779

"Israel, Palestine and the Middle East"

You must hear these end-time prophecies and current events, concerning the Palestinian issue and the Land of Israel.

"Israel, the Church and End-Time Prophecy"

Gain insight into God's plan for Israel and the Church, while learning about your Jewish roots and heritage. This is a significant prophetic teaching on God's plan for Israel, how it is being fulfilled today, and the implications for believers.

"Messiah and the Passover Seder" (Presentation)

This teaching demonstrates a beautiful picture of how the pieces of God's salvation plan fit together, and how the elements used in the Passover Seder point toward the Messiah. The presentation culminates in an explanation of how the Lord's Supper was a Passover celebration.

"Gentiles Commission to the Jews"

Yachad Ministries has a crucial end-time Message to share with both Jews and Gentiles... and the enemy wants to destroy it!

*****

"It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors.

For if the Gentiles have been partakers of their (the Jewish peoples) spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in material things."

Romans 15:27

LaShana Tova (Happy New Year)

It seems incredible to think that the year 5779 is almost here with the coming of Rosh Ha-Shanah on the first day of Tishrei (this year it starts at sundown on the 9th of September).

This Jewish holiday also called the Feast of Trumpets, because traditionally, for a month before Rosh Ha-Shanah, the shofars (trumpets) would be blown at the beginning of each new day, throughout the Jewish communities, to awaken our spirits for the coming year. This tradition started on the first day of the biblical seventh month, about four thousand years ago when Abraham was asked by God to take Isaac up to Mount Moriah (later known as Mount Zion) and sacrifice him with fire. Because of Abraham's obedience, God Himself supplied a ram for the sacrifice, instead of Isaac. Five hundred years later, when the children of Israel were in the wilderness, God told Moses to tell the Israelites, "On the first day of the seventh month you are to have a day of rest, a sacred assembly commemorated with a trumpet blast. Do no regular work, but present an offering made to the Lord by fire." (Leviticus 23:23-25).

*L'shanah
Tovah
Happy
Rosh Hashanah!*

The evening of Rosh Ha-Shanah begins the Ten Days of Awe. This is a special time for God's people to take a serious look at our lives, and remembering who God is and what He has done and is doing in our lives. This is a time that is just as important now as it was thirty-five hundred years ago when God instructed us, as His redeemed people, to keep these days separate (Holy). What a time to look at our lives and see what is needed for us to experience a closer personal relationship with God, and to reflect on the coming Day of Atonement.

At the end of the days of Awe, which is the 10th day of Tishrei (sundown 18th of September), begins Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. This was the day in which the High Priest would enter the Holy of Holies to offer up the blood sacrifice for all Israel. This is when they repented of their sins for the past year.

Today, as believers in Messiah Yeshua we recognize that He became our Kippur (atonement for sin). However, we still fast for all our Jewish people who have not yet received Yeshua as their atonement.

Please join with us, during these High Holy Days, and pray for our Jewish people and the nation of Israel.

The Terrorists Organizations, Hamas and Fatah have still not removed their call for the genocide of the Jewish People. Their ideological commitment is to destroy the State of Israel through a long-term 'so-called' holy war (Jihad).

Israeli Updates

'THE PALESTINIANS' GOAL IS TO WIPE ISRAEL OFF THE MAP': Deputy Minister Michael Oren responded to a demand by the Palestinian Authority (PA) to expel Israel from the United Nations in the wake of the approval of the Nationality Law. "The 137 countries that recognized a Palestinian state did so with the intention of advancing peace and what are the Palestinians doing in response? They are appealing to the UN to demand that Israel be expelled from all international organizations. This time, the excuse is the enactment of the Nationality Law," he said. "Even without the Nationality Law, the goal of the Palestinians was and remains the same - to wipe Israel off the map," the Deputy Minister said. "Unfortunately, those 137 countries that recognized 'Palestine' are wrong to think that the PA's activity is meant for peace. These countries are, in fact, helping the Palestinians' malicious plot to expel Israel from the UN and thus to destroy the State of Israel, all without any connection to the Nationality Law. The Nationality Law, which was recently approved by the Knesset, states that Israel is the Jewish people's nation state and establishes as law Israel's flag, symbols, the Hebrew language, and various other items mentioned in the Declaration of Independence. The law does not affect the rights of minority citizens in Israel.

ISRAEL'S BENNETT SAYS ISRAEL'S POLICY OF RESTRAINT IN GAZA HAS FAILED: "If we had struck the first kite launchers when there were still one or two of them, it would not have reached thousands," Minister of Education Naftali Bennett said on Monday, 13 Aug. 2018, saying that Israel's policy of restraint has thus far not been successful. Bennett, a member of the security cabinet, said an alternative response to Hamas must be considered. "They are terrorists in the full meaning of the word and we must eliminate them," Bennett said. Bennett asserted "if we follow the formula of 'quiet in return for quiet' we will end up with a stronger Hamas, and we will have a second Hezbollah in Gaza. We have no interest in hurting the residents of Gaza. But we have a clear goal. Just like we had the strategic threat of tunnels and ignored it for years, until Operation Protective Edge, we have to do the same with a militarized Gaza," he said. "It is inconceivable that Hamas will fire on us when they wish and we will remain silent." Bennett's words were said after a tentative quiet for the past few days. Hamas has restrained its rocket fire since late last week, though it remains unclear if Hamas stopped the rocket fire as the result of a mutual understanding reached with Israel, or if it was a unilateral decision. Israel has imposed tight restrictions on the border, the kind that signify a situation of continued violence. Israel demands nothing less than a complete cease-fire from Hamas, PM Netanyahu said. The prime minister said Israel's objective is to restore quiet to residents of the South and the area adjacent to the Gaza Strip.

USA HOPES AID CUTS WILL PRESSURE PALESTINIANS TO ACCEPT PEACE PLAN: The White House is seeking to withhold up to $200 million in direct aid for Palestinians in Gaza and Judea & Samaria in addition to funding reductions for UNRWA, according to diplomatic sources. USA Secretary of State Mike Pompeo and top Middle East adviser Jared Kushner decided on the cuts in a high-level meeting last week. Congress had already appropriated $230 million in economic support funds, but the officials decided they would ask lawmakers to withhold most of the funds. Sources said the administration intends to continue funding a network of six hospitals in east Jerusalem. According to sources, Kushner maintained that ending the aid could strengthen his negotiating hand when he introduces his long-awaited Middle East peace plan.
