"Israel, Palestine and the Middle East"

You must hear these end-time prophecies and current events, concerning the Palestinian issue and the Land of Israel.

"Israel, the Church and End-Time Prophecy"

Gain insight into God's plan for Israel and the Church, while learning about your Jewish roots and heritage. This is a significant prophetic teaching on God's plan for Israel, how it is being fulfilled today, and the implications for believers.

"Messiah and the Passover Seder" (Presentation)

This teaching demonstrates a beautiful picture of how the pieces of God's salvation plan fit together, and how the elements used in the Passover Seder point toward the Messiah. The presentation culminates in an explanation of how the Lord's Supper was a Passover celebration.

"Gentiles Commission to the Jews"

Yachad Ministries has a crucial end-time Message to share with both Jews and Gentiles... and the enemy wants to destroy it!

"It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been partakers of their (the Jewish peoples) spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in material things."

Romans 15:27

Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur A Time of Reflection, Hope and Celebration

Rosh Hashanah marks the beginning of the High Holy Days. It is both a very solemn and yet a great joyful time. It is joyful because it represents the future redemption of Israel. It is solemn because it is a time of looking inward and seeing one's self as we truly are. It is a time for honesty and making things right with God. This in essence is what the High Holy Days are all about, preparing and repenting, receiving the atonement provided by God Himself and living life day in and day out in the presence of God. In Leviticus 23:23, Rosh Hashanah falls on the first day of the seventh month, in the Hebrew Calendar it begins the New Year. It ushers in the ten days of Awe leading up to Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. (Rosh Hashanah begins Sundown Sept. 15) and (Yom Kippur, Sundown Sept. 24)

There are many Rosh Hashanah customs, such as dipping pieces of apples into honey, before eating. This is done in the hope that the new year will be sweet. The apple is said to symbolize the Divine Presence. The use of round loaf bread instead of the usual braided hallah (bread), is done because the round shape of the bread symbolizes a crown. Nuts are avoided at this time because the numerical value for the Hebrew word for "nut" is the same as the Hebrew word for "sin."

Another interesting custom is known as Tashlikh. People go to a river, stream or ocean with bread crumbs in their pockets. These bread crumbs represent their sins. Upon prayers of repentance, they toss these crumbs into the water, while reciting Scriptures, such as Micah 7:19 (He will turn again, He will have compassion upon us; He will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea). This represents casting their sins into the depths of the sea to be remembered no more. This is a symbol of sins being swallowed up by forgiveness.

One of the most distinguishing features of Rosh Hashanah is the blowing of the shofar, or ram's horn. The Torah was given amid blasts of a shofar. The blowing of a shofar is associated with Judgment Day. It is also associated with the coronation of a King. The sound of a shofar will herald in the Messianic Age and the Resurrection. Truly, one should be in awe upon hearing the sound of a shofar.

According to Jewish tradition, the Ten Days of Awe is the time when God determines the fate of every human being. The righteous will be inscribed in the Book of Life. The wicked will be inscribed in the Book of Death. The fate of all the other human beings hangs in the balance until Yom Kippur. This is a time for great introspection, for taking stock of one's deeds, and making amends for the wrongs they have done. One never knows when they will take their last breath. It's good to be right with God all the time.

L'Shanah Tovah Tikatevu "May you be inscribed in the Book of Life."

The Terrorists Organizations, Hamas and Fatah have still not removed their call for the genocide of the Jewish People. Their ideological commitment is to destroy the State of Israel through a long-term 'so-called' holy war (Jihad).

Israeli Updates

Hamas Sentences 7 Gazans to Death by Hanging for ‘Collaboration’ with Israel;

A military court in the Gaza Strip on Sunday, sentenced seven people to death by hanging for “collaboration” with Israel, the coastal enclave’s Hamas-run interior ministry said. The court also sentenced seven others to “life imprisonment with hard labor,” which in Gaza amounts to 25 years, the ministry also said in a statement. Regarding those sentenced to death, the court said they had provided information to Israel on terror groups in Gaza — including names, phone numbers, addresses, and weapons caches — in return for money, media reported. One of the defendants was allegedly given a permit to work in Israel in return for the information he provided. Under Palestinian law, a death sentence requires the approval of the president of the PA, but since Hamas took control of the Gaza Strip in 2007 it has repeatedly ignored this, and last September executed two Palestinians for “collaboration” with Israel as well as three others for murder. Meanwhile, protests in Gaza continue with thousands of outraged young demonstrators pouring onto the streets, as part of a popular movement calling itself “We Want to Live.” The movement rejects the ongoing economic deterioration and political plight in Gaza and demands the necessities of life, such as electricity.

Palestinians in Gaza Protest Economic Hardship, Call to End Hamas Rule; Following Sunday’s, widespread demonstrations in the Gaza Strip in protest of the high cost of living and shortage in electricity and gas supplies, Palestinian activists announced that they will resume the protests on Friday. Thousands of Palestinians participated in the demonstrations that erupted in various parts of the Hamas-ruled Gaza Strip. According to some reports and witnesses, Hamas security officers used force to disperse the protesters. Scores of Palestinians were arrested and injured. The demonstrations are seen by Palestinians as a big embarrassment for the Hamas leaders, many of whom are currently based in Qatar, Turkey, and Lebanon. It was not clear whether the latest protests in the Gaza Strip were part of a larger campaign against Hamas. It was also unclear whether a single party was behind the demonstrations. “Oh the shame! They sold Gaza for dollars,” the protesters chanted on Sunday night. At other protests, they chanted the famous slogan from the Arab Spring: “The people want the regime to fall!” In one video, the protesters are heard chanting: “Oh, Abbas, Oh, Haniyeh, the [Palestinian] people are the victims.” The latest protests coincided with increased talk about a possible reconciliation between Fatah and Hamas.

Plant a Tree in Israel
