“Israel, Palestine and the Middle East”

You must hear these end-time prophecies and current events, concerning the Palestinian issue and the Land of Israel.

“Israel, the Church and End-Time Prophecy”

Gain insight into God's plan for Israel and the Church, while learning about your Jewish roots and heritage. This is a significant prophetic teaching on God's plan for Israel, how it is being fulfilled today, and the implications for believers.

“Messiah and the Passover Seder” (Presentation)

This teaching demonstrates a beautiful picture of how the pieces of God's salvation plan fit together, and how the elements used in the Passover Seder point toward the Messiah. The presentation culminates in an explanation of how the Lord's Supper was a Passover celebration.

“Gentiles Commission to the Jews”

Yachad Ministries has a crucial end-time Message to share with both Jews and Gentiles... and the enemy wants to destroy it!

“It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been partakers of their (the Jewish peoples) spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in material things.”

Romans 15:27

The Land Of Gaza (Arab or Jewish)

Gaza is often viewed through the lens of Israel and Palestinian Arab conflicts, overshadowing its ancient Jewish heritage. Gaza was not always Arab. The region has deep Jewish roots, with a Jewish presence dating back to Biblical times. This history is a testament to the enduring connection between the Jewish people and this ancient city and to its land.

The Bible identifies Gaza as one of the five Philistine cities. Gaza was more than just a Philistine stronghold; it was a significant hub for trade and culture, yet the Jewish communities not only thrived, their life flourished there during the First and Second Temple periods.

The notion that today's Palestinian Arabs are descendants of the Biblical Philistines lacks any historical support, the Philistines were a seafaring people, distinct from the Arab inhabitants of the region today. The Bible calls them "Philistines" a word meaning invaders, because the group originated in the Greek islands and invaded the Gaza region from the sea. Palestinian Arabs have also claimed to be descendants of the long-disappeared pagan Canaanites and Jebusites.

In a 2012 statement on Egyptian TV, Hamas Minister of Interior and National Security, Fathi Hammad, acknowledged that many of today's Palestinian Arabs are of Egyptian and Saudi origin.

One of the most compelling pieces of evidence of Gaza's Jewish past is the mosaic found in the ancient synagogue of Gaza in the Rimal district of Gaza City, discovered in 1965. Dating back to 508 C.E., this mosaic is a vivid reminder of Gaza's Jewish community long before the rise of Islam. Today, the mosaic is at the Israel Museum and a copy is displayed at the Museum of the Good Samaritan in Israel, symbolizing the deep Jewish roots in the region.

Following the Spanish Inquisition and the expulsion of Jews from Spain in 1492, many Sephardic Jews found refuge in the Ottoman Empire, including in Gaza. These Jewish settlers revitalized the city's Jewish community, contributing to its economic and cultural life, establishing synagogues, and maintaining religious institutions.

Jewish life in early 20th-century Gaza was vibrant, despite the challenges posed by rising tensions and violence. Then in the 1970s, under Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, Israel made efforts to re-establish a Jewish presence in the Gaza Strip as a strategic move to secure the region. However, international and internal pressure eventually led to Israel's disengagement from Gaza in 2005, resulting in the removal and destruction of all the vibrant Jewish communities there.

While international pressure is already being placed upon Israel to make Gaza Jew-free again after the war, there are security voices in Israel, like IDSF Director Amir Avivi, who clearly explain the security need for Israel to resettle Gaza with Jewish communities. He and other experts believes that only Jewish communities in Gaza can Israel secure Israel, returning to the security understanding of PM Rabin and his Labor government back in the 1970s.

The Terrorists Organizations, Hamas and Fatah have still not removed their call for the genocide of the Jewish People. Their ideological commitment is to destroy the State of Israel through a long-term 'so-called' holy war (Jihad).

Israeli Updates

Iran is Advancing Research on Nuclear Bomb Detonators; Very large amounts of Iranian academic research have been refocused to advancing issues relevant to nuclear bomb detonation, the Institute for Science and International Security's president David Albright told Israeli media. This is a potentially radical paradigm shift in how close a real Iran nuclear weapons threat could become, given that until now, defense officials and analysts always said that no matter how far along the Islamic Republic was enriching uranium, there would be time to stop it from getting the bomb seeing as it had not mastered key "weapons group" activities. Albright told the Israeli news outlet that he will soon be coming out with a report that summarizes the analysis of over 150 Iranian "academic" papers related to computer modeling for simulations in connection with nuclear weapons as well as with neutron initiators. Albright is not alone in sounding the alarm. The US's annual intelligence estimate in July carried implied warnings and the IAEA has also repeatedly said that it is blind and concerned about Iranian weaponization. As for Tehran itself, Iranian media just reported that three Iranian sources had confirmed progress concerning nuclear armament and detonation issues.

Walz's Minnesota Administration Gave $2,000,000 to Muslim Group Fundraising for al Qaeda-Linked Charity; "Walz administration awarded $2 million to Muslim group fundraising for al Qaeda-linked charity," claimed Gabe Kaminsky, an investigative reporter for American media, on Friday. More specifically, he wrote that "under Gov. Tim Walz (D-MN), the state of Minnesota awarded over $2 million to an Islamic group that fundraises for a charity linked to an al Qaeda affiliate, according to funding records reviewed by the Washington Examiner." "The Islamic Association of North America, the recipient of the state grants from 2019 to 2024, is fundraising after Hamas's Oct. 7 attack on Israel last year for Rahma Worldwide, a Michigan-based charity that says it is shipping humanitarian aid to Gaza, according to flyers," he added. "In a since-deleted Facebook post in October 2023, Rahma Worldwide President Shadi Zaza revealed his charity was collaborating on an aid initiative with the Islamic Heritage Revival Society of Kuwait, a terrorist group sanctioned by the U.S. government for funding al Qaeda." "As Minnesota's governor, Walz has repeatedly hosted Muslim cleric Asad Zaman, who shared a pro-Adolf Hitler movie on social media and defended the Oct. 7 attack. Moreover, according to unearthed footage, Walz referred to Zaman as a "master teacher" at a 2018 event held by the Zaman-led Muslim American Society of Minnesota, which partners with the IANA," he stated.
